Routine Notes.

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record.]

I enclose a copy of a letter given to me by the Dewan for delivery to the Collector at Chittoor, in connection with my deputation to that place for acquainting myself with the routine -- revenue administration of a Madras -- District. I left Bangalore along with one of my clerks and a peon on the 29th ultimo to see the Collector on the -- 30th as per arrangements previously made. I stayed there till the 7th [illegible] instt, and arrived in Bangalore yesterday. One of my clerks and a mutchi had preceded me by one day to Chittoor. I beg that formal orders of Government may kindly be issued sanctioning the deputation of myself and my establishment to Chittoor.

Copy of D.O. letter from the Dewan of Mysore, to Mr. H.T. Reilly, Collector, Chittoor District.

In connection with the improvement of District Administration in the Mysore State, I am anxious that one of our officers who is on Special Duty should acquaint himself with the ordinary revenue work carried on in a Taluk Office and a Revenue Sub Division Office in a British District. Although I have not the pleasure of knowing you personally, I have instructed the bearer of this letter, Mr. C. Ranganatha Rao Saheb, to go to Chittoor, which is one of the Districts nearest to Mysore, in the hope that you will have no objection to let him visit the Taluk Office and the Revenue Sub Division Office at the place and take such notes as he may require of the routine revenue work usually carried on. I shall be greatly obliged if you will kindly give him the necessary permission and any other assistance he may need. He will not stay in Chittoor for more than three or four days. I hope you will overlook the informal nature of the requisition which has been adopted to save time and correspondence.
